President's Message

The 2005-6 Season will shortly be underway and I would like to wish every group all good fortune 'break a leg'.

We are still in need of members to help run ACT-CO programmes by either sitting on the Board or by volunteering to assist in a specific area. Please let me know if you are able to help – if we do not receive the necessary help the prospects of ACT-CO being able to continue are not healthy. Many groups receive a lot from ACT-CO –please consider assisting us by putting something back.

I would like to welcome all new and returning members to the Board and to bid farewell to Ron Ashton and Michael Roantree, their contributions have been invaluable. Kim Collins has joined us and has taken on the job of Secretary and John Wyman has joined and has been appointed Treasurer. We are sure their contributions will be equally as valued. Mag Brown has rejoined us after a short absence and has been appointed East Area Representative.

We would also like to welcome new member groups: Century Theatre Guild and The Very Useful Theatre Company. The returning member is Clarkson Music Theatre of Mississauga.

I urge all groups to keep in touch with us regarding any concerns or suggestions that you may have. Ideally, you would approach your area representatives first, but any member of the Board will be pleased to assist or answer questions.

David Nash

Hosting the 2007 Theatre Ontario Festival

ACT-CO is the host region for the 2007 Theatre Ontario Festival and we are looking for member groups to volunteer to host this prestigious Festival. Former hosts within ACT-CO have been Oshawa Little Theatre and the Curtain Club.

This is a great opportunity to showcase your group, provide your members and audiences with some stellar productions, meet and mingle with theatre folk and to obtain valuable local publicity.

In addition to the four performances, there are workshops, adjudications, after-glow parties, the awards brunch and the Theatre Ontario AGM. More information is available on the Theatre Ontario Website <http://www.theatreontario.org/>

The proceeds from the Festival are shared between the host group, ACT-CO and Theatre Ontario.

If your group is interested in hosting, please contact David Nash at president@actco.ca or by telephone at 905 855 1439.

From Our Festival Chair: Margery Cruise

By now, all group contacts, including the names from last year as well as the updated names for this year, have received the FESTIVAL PACKAGE for their group.

Please note your group must be a paid member of ACT-CO by the Festival entry deadline in order to register for and participate in the ACT-CO Festival.

The Festival will run from Monday, October 3rd, 2005 to Sunday, April 2nd, 2006 inclusive. The Gala will be held on Saturday, April 8th, 2006. The Theatre Ontario Festival 2006 is on May 17 to 21, 2006 and is co-hosted by Theatre Ontario, the Western Ontario Drama League, and Theatre Sarnia. The adjudicator is Virginia Reh.

The adjudicators for this year's Festival are:

Comedy Category	Dennis Johnson
Drama Category	Brian Van Norman
Musical Category	Ken Albanese

For more Festival information please visit www.actco.ca.

Meet the Adjudicators

Brian Van Norman - Drama Category

Brian Van Norman has been employed over 30 years in a variety of venues within the theatre community. As well as being an educator, he has worked with school, university, amateur and professional companies serving variously as director, writer, producer and designer.

The range of his work runs the gamut of theatrical styles in the two hundred and forty (and still counting) productions he has directed and his projects have appeared in a number of professional venues including the Stratford Festival, the Arts Club Theatre in New York, the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles, the Grand Theatre in London, Theatre & Company, the Waterloo Stage and Next Level Theatre in the Waterloo Region and Theatre Muskoka, as well as in numerous amateur venues.

Theatre Muskoka, as well as in numerous amateur venues.

Brian has adjudicated for the Sears Drama Festival on multiple occasions at District and Regional levels, and twice for the Western Ontario Drama League. He serves on the Board of Theatre Ontario and is a member of Theatre Ontario's Professional Talent Bank. When not adjudicating, writing, or directing, Brian conducts a variety of theatre workshops in acting, directing and design, as well as play polishing.

Brian has also acted... once. He played the dead guy.

Dennis Johnson - Comedy Category

Dennis Johnson is an educator and director with fifteen years experience as an adjudicator. He holds an M.A. in Educational Drama [University of Central England, Birmingham] and has studied theatre in Ontario [Queens, Waterloo], New York [H.B. Studios, Columbia Teachers' College], and California [the Dell'Arte School]. A wide-ranging teaching career includes Dramatic Arts teaching qualifications courses at U. of T. and Brock University, as well as a Circus Skills course at the Maggie Bassett Studio.

Dennis has also been active in Community Theatre for over twenty-five years as an actor, director, producer and set designer, primarily at the Road Show Theatre, the Guelph Little Theatre and Royal City Musical Productions.

Recent directing credits include Jesus Christ Superstar, The King and I and A Christmas Carol and The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged) at the River Run Centre in Guelph.

Dennis Johnson has served on the Education and Summer Courses committees of Theatre Ontario and worked for nine years on the executive of CODE [the Council of Drama in Education - Ontario's association of drama teachers], three of them as President. Dennis has been associated with the Sears Ontario Drama Festival for over thirty years as a director and festival co-coordinator, and has adjudicated for over fifteen years at both the District and Regional levels. In 2002-2003 he was traveling adjudicator for the Western Ontario Drama League, and in 2004-2005 he adjudicated the Musical Theatre category for ACT-CO.

Ken Albanese- Musical Category

Ken has over 30 years of experience in theatre as an actor, director, adjudicator and workshop leader. He has many experiences in community theatre that have given him a unique perspective and a profound respect for the achievements of those companies in Ontario. He is a multi-award winner himself at community theatre festivals including best director and production awards at Theatre Ontario. Ken has many experiences as a play polisher and workshop leader in community theatre for acting and directing. In the 2004-05 ACT-CO Theatre Festival Ken adjudicated the Comedy category.

Ken is a member of Canadian Actor's Equity Association and the Professional Talent Bank of Theatre Ontario and has been involved in professional theatre as a director, producer and arts administrator including a stint as general manager of Theatre Orangeville for three seasons. Professional directing credits include the Toronto premiere of Arthur Kopit's play Wings, the Canadian premiere of Ladies' Night including a run at the New Yorker Theatre in Toronto, Deathtrap, Look No Hans, Death and the Maiden, Jump, Jive and Swing, Great Scot, a musical based on the life of Robbie Burns.

Ken has had a career in education including teaching many university courses for teachers. He brings a combination of extensive experience in education with a sound knowledge of theatre to the adjudication process. Ken has adjudicated festivals in all areas of the province including the Theatre Ontario Festival and firmly believes that the process should be a positive learning experience for both audience and company members and, yes the adjudicator too.
